

Focused on empowering people to live life according to the way God creatively crafted them, Robin May is an impactful & engaging presenter!

As a much-sought after speaker, Robin is able to energize her audience in a transparent, lively and engaging way. She is the author of Before You Take His Name which gives women 14 questions they should ask prior to saying 'I Do.' She has also recently released, *"The 30 – Day Intentional Intimacy Project * For Married Women!"* which takes women on a 30-Day journey to maintain or re-ignite the spark in their romance!

Robin currently serves as a mental health therapist counseling individuals, couples and families. She also is strategically helping people to transform their relationships as a 'real and relevant' Relationship and Life Coach. She challenges her clients to learn how to live their lives to the fullest by first challenging them to look in the mirror and get honest with themselves!

Robin is the founder of the social networking site, IBelieveInMarriage.com, where individuals and couples gather to discuss, learn and encourage one another about building a healthy relationship! She is also the founder of "Friends with Vision", another powerful networking organization for women who believe in living their lives with purpose and on purpose!

Robin's life changing advice has been featured in Essence Magazine, the Rickey Smiley Show and weekly on Radio One's Gospel Station – Praise 102.5, the K.D. Bowe Show where Robin is the featured life coach.

Robin is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. and a member of the 2007 class of Leadership Georgia. Although Robin is extremely proud of her accomplishments, her most treasured role is being the wife to Lee May, and mother to daughters Ryann Kimberly and Reagan Leanne.
